BRAZILIAN JIU-JITSU & GRAPPLING ATHLETE

“My ambition is to make my mark in the world of jiu-jitsu through my results, while inspiring the youth to believe in their dreams.”

— Sana Ndiaye

WHO AM I

Sana Ndiaye is a French Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and grappling athlete representing NSM TEAM and the French national team. Her international titles and IBJJF World silver medal have earned her recognition at NSM TEAM as France’s leading young BJJ athlete, across men’s and women’s competition. A black belt since 2026, she is also a qualified instructor coaching the next generation of women.

CORE VALUES

DISCIPLINE

A structured training routine, balanced lifestyle, and daily commitment. Each session is designed for technical and physical progress with measurable goals.

DETERMINATION

Performing under pressure - competition after competition. Sana builds a winning mindset. Challenges become steps forward, not obstacles.

INSPIRATION

Spreading a positive mindset among the youth and promoting an inclusive, demanding sport. Proving that it's possible to balance discipline and high-level performance.
